

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
DHS CHILD SUPPORT/FAMILY COURT
WASHINGTON, Sc.

MARGARITA E. PALANGE,
Plaintiff

v.

C.A. NO W2012-0361

STEVEN J. PALANGE,
Defendant

MOTION TO STAY ENFORCEMENT OF BODY ATTACHMENT ORDER

I, Steven Palange, the defendant in the above-captioned matter respectfully request an Order staying the enforcement of an Order by this Court for my body attachment.

The Body Attachment is not necessary to assure my appearance in court. I have good defenses to the claims pending against me. I have lived in the local area my entire life and own a business in Exeter. Furthermore, I have sued to vacate the judgments that awarded Temporary Sole Custody and Child Support. I am also seeking declaratory relief relative to this matter, my rights to due process and rights to the Marital Settlement Agreement. Those matters are pending in the Superior Court.

Here is a list of the Courts and cases I am currently defending or prosecuting. A body-attachment is unnecessary and should be void:

1. Rhode Island DHS CHILD SUPPORT/FAMILY COURT (Magistrate Paul T. Jones) Docket # - W2012-0361.
2. Rhode Island FAMILY COURT (Judge Sandra Lanni) Docket # - W2012-0361.
3. Rhode Island Superior Civil Court (Honorable Judge Sarah Taft-Carter) Docket # - WC-2019-0555.
4. Rhode Island Superior Civil Court (Honorable Judge Sarah Taft-Carter) Docket # - WC-2019-0449.
5. Rhode Island Supreme Court Docket # - SU-2019-0156-A.
6. Rhode Island Federal District Court (Judge John O'Connell) Docket# - 1:19-cv-00340-JJM-PAS
7. 1st Circuit Court of the United States (Judges Jeffrey R. Howard, Juan R. Torruella, and Rogerice Thompson) Docket # - 19-1951.

Please refer to the Marital Settlement Agreement entered by this Court into the Final Judgment as of December 18, 2013, of divorce in this matter which may NOT be amended without due process.

Therefore I respectfully request that the Court Order a Stay the enforcement of the Writ of Body Attachment.

Respectfully,

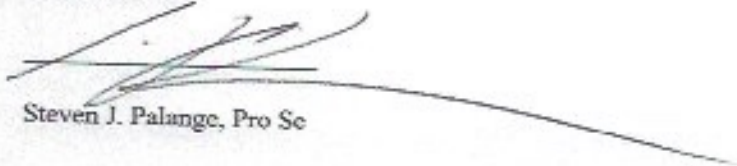

Steven J. Palange
